

Invoice Discounting

Why wait forever and a day for customers to pay your invoices?

With an invoice discounting facility from Skipton Business Finance, you can get your well-earned money straight away.

We strive to ensure that your facility grows as your business does so, unlike traditional bank overdrafts, it's flexible and tailored to your business requirements.

What is Invoice Discounting?

Invoice Discounting is a form of flexible business finance which allows you to immediately release funds tied up in unpaid invoices, meaning that you can put it straight back into your business.

You continue to invoice and collect payment in the normal way and have the peace of mind that the service is confidential so your customers will notice no changes.

Our solutions give you flexibility. With funds for invoices up front, you have the freedom to make payments on regular bills such as tax, salaries or rent and confidence if unexpected bills occur.
